

Medical Writer: Sydney

- Join a dynamic, growing and digitally-focused creative agency
- Work with leading pharmaceutical brands to deliver innovative solutions for patients and HCPs alike
- Be a valued part of a creative team with opportunity for consumer copywriting should you wish
- Based in Sydney (Pyrmont).

Orchard is growing. We are looking for a talented Medical Writer with solid experience, preferably including Medical Education, to join our Healthcare team. This is an exciting opportunity to be part of inspirational campaigns for inspirational products and brands in human and animal health.

Orchard offers a fun working environment in a cool office space with a highly-active social committee. We pride ourselves on our work life balance and we're 100% committed to your continued professional and personal development. We offer a rich array of internal and external structured training and education as well as ongoing and individual wellbeing support through Benestar.

Key Function

As the Medical Writer you will be reporting directly to the Associate Creative director. You'll work closely with other members of the Creative, Strategy, Account service and Project Management teams to develop engaging, medically and scientifically accurate communications tailored to the audience. Your audience will range from healthcare professionals to patients and carers.

Specific Duties

On a day-to-day basis these are the things you would be involved in:

- Attending internal and off-site project briefing meetings as well as brainstorming the best solutions to meet clients' needs
- Attending scientific meetings or client events (e.g. advisory boards) as necessary
- Translating complex medical and scientific concepts into articulate and concise content
- Producing a wide range of medical writing outputs including slide-kit presentations, websites, branded campaign materials and patient education resources
- Participating in the editorial process from production of first round copy to final drafts and proofreading to ensure all work is produced to a high and accurate standard
- Ensuring that all work is both "on brand" and Code compliant
- Offering continuous feedback on working practices to help senior leadership develop protocols that promote higher standards of copy development within Orchard
- Collaborating with creative, strategy, development, account service and project management teams as required
- Assisting in the development of new business pitch presentations and proposals through medical research

- Showing a strong commitment to the Company's core values (Integrity, Collaboration and Curiosity)
- Embracing and respecting the Company's community & environmental responsibilities.

Required skills and experience

To apply for this role, you should have:

- At least 1 year's medical writing experience
- Strong life-sciences background, either academic or vocational
- Examples of work to show us
- Exceptional communication skills
- A positive attitude
- Familiarity with Medicines Australia Code of Conduct
- All applicants MUST have the right to work within Australia.

If you feel like this is the right job for you then please email your CV (do people still have CVs?) or LinkedIn profile to jobs@orchard.com.au and we will arrange a soy latte for a chat.

A little about Orchard

Orchard is a creative agency that merges art and technology to invent better outcomes for businesses and brands. We work with a number of leading multinationals such as BI, MSD, GSK, Electrolux, BT, Zoetis and Hyundai, to name a few.

Invent Better are two little words that define our overall ethos. We believe that creative technology solutions are the key to winning in today's digital age, and that formula challenges us to engage with our clients in a way that encourages us all to push that little bit further every time.

It's this passion and approach that has made us one of Australia's leading agencies in health consumer marketing.
